

NOVAtime Technology, Inc. Prepares to Host the 2017 Encounters Users Conference

NOVAtime is thrilled to be making the final preparations for its 4th Annual Encounters User Conference, with many sessions designed to help clients get the most out of their workforce management solution and other sessions where attendees may receive HRCI or SHRM recertification credits.

Diamond Bar, CA (PRWEB) April 14, 2017 -- Diamond Bar, CA (PRWEB) April 14, 2017 – NOVAtime Technology, Inc. (<http://www.novatime.com>), a leading provider of time & attendance / workforce management solutions, is thrilled to be making the final preparations to host its Annual User Conference, Encounters 2017, an event that brings NOVAtime users and experts together for valuable mutual learning, networking opportunities, and a celebration of what NOVAtime and its clients are able to accomplish with a streamlined workforce management / time & attendance solution.

Taking place April 19-21 at the beautiful Aria Resort and Casino in Las Vegas, NV, Encounters will feature many sessions with NOVAtime system experts, providing education in NOVAtime best practices, configuring your system to be optimized for your business, and legal issues surrounding workforce management / time and attendance. Two of the sessions focusing on legal issues will be hosted by Marie Davis, Esq. of the Landegger Baron Law Group, an expert in employer law. The first of these sessions, titled “ADA, FMLA, & Intermittent Leaves”, discusses an issue NOVAtime's own comprehensive FMLA solution addresses. The second “How to Handle Workplace Investigations / Complaints of Harassment,” is an important topic for any HR professional or business owner. Both sessions are eligible for HRCI and SHRM recertification credits for all attendees.

“Encounters provides NOVAtime with a great opportunity, not only to help our users get to know the NOVAtime system on a deeper level, but for NOVAtime to get to know its customers, and learn more about their unique workforce management / time and attendance needs. This allows us in turn to focus our development towards those unique needs,” said Brian Meharry, VP of Business Development.
